5 Keys to Success

“Achieving excellence together”

Key for success:

“Can do” attitude.

To approach all aspects of school life in a positive and constructive manner. To be determined to find a solution to the most challenging of problems and a willingness to engage with other members of the community.

Working Hard:

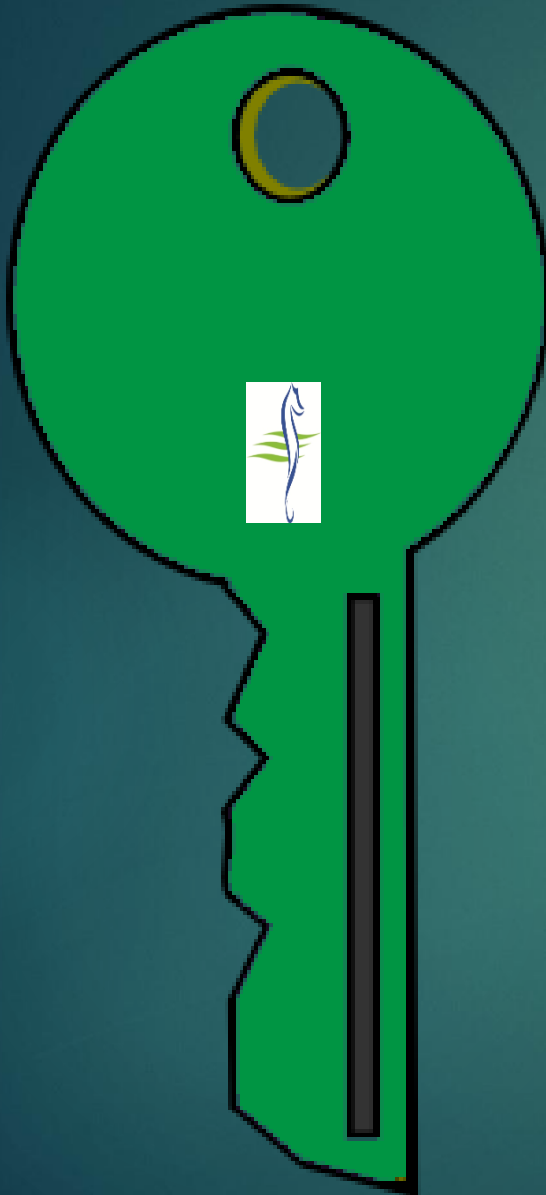

To work as hard as possible in order to be the “best you can be”. To work determinedly and tenaciously to achieve your individual goals.

Respect for all:

Through actions, deeds and words to personify and promote the values of Seaford Head School. To show respect for all members of the community and to promote positive relationships across the school.

Positive contributions
To make an energetic and enthusiastic contribution inside and outside of the classroom. To seek to take the lead and make a positive impact on society. This positive approach makes the school more enjoyable and rewarding for everyone involved.

Honest Intentions

To conduct yourself with honesty and integrity. Through taking a positive approach to school, your personal qualities and character develop and shine through everything you do.
