

February 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

We hope you all had a lovely half term. Attached is a newsletter signposting some very exciting upcoming events linked to literacy for Term 4, as well as a guide for supporting reading as a parent/carer at home. Most significantly, we have World Book Day to look forward to, which is on Thursday 2nd March.

As you will be aware, reading offers many exciting opportunities, such as:

- Talking about reading/books at home with friends or family. Maybe complete a book hunt or play a game?
- Make a book themed costume or cook a baked good/dish related to a story.
- Create a 'book nook' at home so you have a special, dedicated reading space to enjoy.
- Visit a charity shop and donate a book – may be even buy a new one cheaply!
- Visit the local library.
- Ask your child to draw what they have read.
- Share what you are reading and why you like/loathe it.

We hope you enjoy trying some of these suggestions. Happy reading and Happy World Book Day 2023!

Kind regards,

Miss L Johnson
