

February 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of the year 12 Literature and Language courses for A level, we have organised a trip to the National Theatre in London to see the Greek Tragedy Phaedra. This will compliment the students' study of the Tragedy genre with the plays Othello and A Streetcar Named Desire that they are reading in class. It is aimed to be an enriching experience for the students.

The trip will take place on Wednesday 22nd March. We will leave school at 11am to catch the train from Seaford station to London. The play begins at 2.30pm and will last for 2 hours 40 minutes. We will then return to Seaford on the train, arriving around 8.30pm (precise timing to be confirmed). This timing means that we have secured off-peak tickets, making the trip more affordable. Students will have an opportunity to get something to eat after the play and may bring some money for this purpose.

There are 20 tickets available for students to purchase on Parent Pay and the cost of the trip will be £31.50. This is not an obligation, but rather an opportunity for students.

We hope the students will enjoy the experience.
