

June 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

YEAR 7 EXAMINATIONS

I am writing with regard to the Year 7 examinations commencing on 19th June 2023. In each year at Seaford Head School students undertake two examination periods in an academic year. We complete exams to ensure students practise the skills of revision and examinations and to prepare them for their GCSEs. It also allows the teacher to be aware of any gaps in knowledge and means their curriculum is altered to ensure the subject closes any of these gaps. Your child will take these fifty minute examinations during lesson time. Please see the timetable below:

Week commencing 12th June:

Digital Literacy: 7A, 7B and 7C exams will take place in their lesson that week.

Art: 7D, 7E and 7H exams will take place in their lesson that week.

Music exams for all of year 7 may continue for one extra lesson if needed (due to new music software). 7F and 7G to start in this week and finish in the next lesson if needed.

This is a fantastic opportunity for the students to showcase their knowledge as a result of all their hard work. Please support and encourage your child to do some independent revision at home. Yours sincerely,
