Dear Parents/Carers

De La Warr Pavilion Trip

Over the past 3 months, Year 9 Media students have been working on a brief set by Kim Byford, Talent Co-ordinator at the De La Warr Pavilion. Students were asked to create branding materials for their 'Colours Festival', all students worked so hard and their designs demonstrated their creativity and passion for the subject.

Yesterday, Kim came and delivered a careers presentation to the Year 9 Media students and judged the entries. Your child was chosen as one of the finalists and has been invited along with the other finalists to visit the De La Warr Pavilion in Bexhill.

During the trip, the finalists will present their ideas to the communications team, who will choose an overall winner. All students will also get the chance to visit the latest exhibition: HÉLIO OITICICA: WAITING FOR THE INTERNAL SUN.

On Wednesday 10 January, we will leave Seaford Head at 09:00am (meet at the AS Hall at 8:45am) and we shall be back at approximately 14.45pm. Students should be in full school uniform and bring their school bag containing a packed lunch, snacks, drinks, a pencil case and something to write in.

Programme for the day:

- 10:00am Arrival at the De La Warr Pavilion
- 10:30am Student presentations
- 11:30am Q&A with the Communications Team
- 12:00pm Lunch
